7. a. NATURE OF THE PROCEEDINGS (Article 3, c):

The evidence requested relates to an antitrust case that was commenced between July and September of 2013 when various direct and indirect purchasers of Defendants' Korean Ramen Noodles in the U.S. filed price-fixing lawsuits against the Defendants alleging that the Defendants conspired to raise the price of Korean Ramen Noodles. The Defendants in this case are Nongshim Co., Ltd., Ottogi Co. Ltd., and Samyang Foods Co. Ltd., (collectively, the "Korean Defendants"), alongside their U.S. subsidiaries which are Nongshim America, Inc. and Ottogi America Inc. respectively ("U.S. Defendants", collectively "Defendants"). The plaintiffs allege that the conspiracy began as early as December of 2000, and continued until at least February of 2010, in violation of the United States antitrust laws, including Section 1 of the Sherman Act of 1890 ("Sherman Act"), 15 U.S.C. §1, and Sections 4 and 16 of the Clayton Act of 1914 ("Clayton Act"), 15 U.S.C. §§15, 26.

In 2014, the various class actions were consolidated and plaintiffs filed two consolidated complaints: a direct purchaser consolidated complaint and an indirect purchaser consolidated complaint. The direct purchaser plaintiffs ("DPPs") are comprised of distributors and retailers of Korean Ramen Noodles purchased in the U.S. The indirect purchaser plaintiffs ("IPPs") are individuals who made purchases of Korean Ramen Noodles at retail locations in their respective states.

These actions are now pending before the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California with the case caption In Re Korean Ramen Antitrust Litigation, No. 13-cv-4115-WHO-DMR (N.D. Cal.).

b. SUMMARY OF PLAINTIFFS' CASE:

On March 24, 2014, Plaintiffs filed an amended Complaint, alleging that the Korean Defendants had colluded to increase prices of Korean Ramen Noodles and keep such prices inflated for approximately 10 years. Plaintiffs allege that collusion manifested itself in at least two formal in-person meetings between the Korean Defendants (in 2001 and 2008) and email communications.

The Defendants also sold their Korean Ramen Noodles in the United States. Plaintiffs allege that the Defendants' conspiracy affected the price of Korean Ramen Noodles sold in the United States in violation of U.S. antitrust laws and that they concealed the existence of the conspiracy. Plaintiffs allege that, as a result of the unlawful conspiracy, Plaintiffs and other purchasers of Korean Ramen Noodles in the United States paid artificially high prices for Defendants' Korean Ramen Noodles and thereby suffered injury and monetary damages.

c. SUMMARY OF DEFENSE:

Defendants deny Plaintiffs' substantive allegations of wrongdoing. Defendants assert that they never agreed to fix or increase prices of Korean Ramen Noodles as alleged by Plaintiffs, that Plaintiffs were not injured or damaged, and that Defendants' activities were lawful at all times. Defendants also deny that they concealed any wrongdoing and assert various affirmative defenses.

8. EVIDENCE TO BE OBTAINED (Article 3,d):

Mr. _____, 's knowledge as to whether there was any price fixing in the Korean Ramen industry, including his knowledge of and participation in communications and meetings between the Defendants concerning the pricing of Korean Ramen Noodles. Mr. _____'s knowledge of any efforts to conceal the existence of communications or meetings between Defendants concerning the pricing of Korean Ramen Noodles. Mr. _____'s knowledge as to whether there was any price fixing of Ramen Noodles sold in the United States and whether any price fixing in the Korean Ramen industry affected the price of Ramen Noodles sold in the United States.

b. PURPOSE OF THE EVIDENCE SOUGHT

The Plaintiffs contend that the former Ottogi Korea employee listed above in Section 8.a was an active participant in the alleged price fixing conspiracy. This suggests to the Plaintiffs that the former Ottogi Korea employee can provide important evidence of the purported price-fixing conspiracy alleged and that their testimony will be important evidence for submission at trial and other proceedings in the litigation.

The Defendants contend that the former Ottogi Korea employee can confirm that he has no knowledge or evidence of a conspiracy by the Defendants concerning the prices of Ramen Noodles sold in the United States.

This Request fully complies with the Republic of Korea's reservations under the Hague Convention.

9. IDENTITY AND ADDRESS OF PERSON TO BE EXAMINED (Article 3, e):

--	--

10. QUESTIONS TO BE PUT TO THE PERSON TO BE EXAMINED OR STATEMENT OF THE SUBJECT MATTER ABOUT WHICH THEY ARE TO BE EXAMINED (Article 3, f):

The subject matter to be examined includes:

Mr. _____'s knowledge as to whether there was any price fixing in the Korean Ramen industry, including his knowledge of and participation in communications and meetings between the Defendants concerning the pricing of Korean Ramen Noodles. Mr. _____'s knowledge of any efforts to conceal the existence of communications or meetings between Defendants concerning the pricing of Korean Ramen Noodles. Mr. _____'s knowledge as to whether there was any price fixing of Ramen Noodles sold in the United States and whether any price fixing in the Korean Ramen industry affected the price of Ramen Noodles sold in the United States.

11. ANY REQUIREMENT THAT THE EVIDENCE BE GIVEN ON OATH OR AFFIRMATION AND SPECIFIC FORM TO BE USED (Article 3, h):

The District Court requests that, in executing the Letter of Request, the testimony of the witness be given under oath, under penalty of perjury: "I [name of deponent] swear that the testimony that I am about to give is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help me God."

In the event the laws of the Republic of Korea do not permit the swearing of an oath by a particular witness, the witness should be instructed of the consequences for giving untruthful and false answers under the laws of the Republic of Korea.

12. SPECIAL METHODS OR PROCEDURES TO BE FOLLOWED (Articles 3, I & 9):

The District Court requests, pursuant to Chapter 1, Article 9 of the Hague Convention, that the following special procedures be observed:

- A. That only the appropriate court and its personnel, the parties' representatives or their designees, interpreters, a videographer and a U.S. verbatim court reporter be permitted to attend and participate in the hearing at which the witness will be examined;

- B. That Plaintiffs' legal representatives or their designees first be permitted to examine the witness on the subjects set forth above and that Defendants' legal representatives or their designees thereafter be permitted to cross-examine the witness on the matters elicited during his direct testimony;
- C. That in addition to any official transcript that may be made by a Korean court, a U.S. court reporter be permitted to make a verbatim record of the witness' examination, at Plaintiffs' expense;
- D. That the parties' representatives or their designees be permitted to object orally to any questions posed by an opposing party's representative or designee, thereby preserving their objections to be ruled upon at a later time by the U.S. District Court;
- E. That a videographer be permitted to attend the hearing and make a video recording of the witness while he testifies;
- F. That a total of seven hours of examination time over the span of one day be allotted to permit questions on the specified subject matter areas listed herein at item 10 to be answered by the witness; and
- G. That, during his oral examination, the witness may be shown documents.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The District Court additionally requests that the confidentiality of any evidence produced as a result of this Request be maintained pursuant to the laws of the Republic of Korea as well as pursuant to the Protective Order issued by the District Court in the U.S. case. A copy of the Protective Order operative in the U.S. case is attached hereto as Schedule A.

Pursuant to the Protective Order, the District Court respectfully requests that any testimony provided by the witness or documents shown to the witness, to the extent subject to the protective order, be treated confidentially in accordance with that order.

13. REQUEST FOR NOTIFICATION OF THE TIME AND PLACE FOR THE EXECUTION OF THE LETTER OF REQUEST (Article 7):

It is respectfully requested that testimony be taken at such place, date or time as agreed to by the respective representatives of the parties.

Dosker and Kate E. Kim, act as liaison between the Director of International Affairs of the Republic of Korea and the parties to ensure that they are timely advised of the Director's decisions with respect to the aforementioned Article 9 requests and to ensure that all participants are advised of the date and location of deposition for the execution of the Request.
